

Moon Soul Graduate School of Future Strategy

“The school is named ‘Moon Soul Graduate School of Future Strategy’ in order to honor the wishes of Moon Soul JUNG, a former board member of KAIST, who has donated a large amount of foundational money.”

In order to lead the future society based on the fusion of new technologies and knowledge, we will identify long-term strategies and large-scale policy tasks for more than 20 years, and cultivate creative professionals who will overcome uncertainties in the future through future strategy, intellectual property and science journalism.

FS (Future Strategy)

To develop advanced manpower to plan future strategies in consideration of future-shaping factors such as society and technology in the changing international situation and global environment

MIP (Management of Intellectual Property)

To promote in-depth understanding of intellectual property issues and to cultivate advanced manpower of intellectual property, equipped with engineering, law, and management mind.

SJ (Science Journalism)

To understand the convergence of science and technology and media culture with the arrival of the new media age, and to cultivate advanced manpower leading the new media age

