Information Management Program	Homepage: https://www.business.kaist.edu/programs/02030501
	Office: 02-958-3641

◉ Overview

Master of Information Management (Offered in Korean)
To foster professionals with knowledge of the latest IT technology issues and insight and vision of IT industry-specific business.

2-year part-time Master's program for those who are currently employed and have difficulties enrolling in a full-time program.

☐ Part Time Program for Professionals

- Terms: Four semesters (2-year program)
- Course Requirement: 39 credits (including Thesis Research 6 credits)
- Schedule: Wednesday evening and Saturday
- It provides a perfect environment for investigation and practical approaches to improving an individual's core ability.

☐ IT Industry Specialized Training

- Provides IT industry-specialized courses
- A Program designed to serve the needs of IT professionals
- Creates synergy through information sharing between industry and academics

☐ Academic Excellence

- An Efficient and systematic education program by KAIST
- The best faculty in Korea (KAIST full-time faculty members teach lectures)
- The leading faculty in the IT management field
- Advanced IT management through International field trips