

Characteristics of Curriculum

Students minoring in the curriculum may choose between two different tracks, depending on their future professional field. The IP Management track will train students to be IP professionals and the IP Management track will train students to deal with intellectual property issues as scientists, engineers, or managers.