

Curriculum Objectives

The main curriculum objectives for learning and education in the Cho Chun Shik Graduate School for Green Transportation are as follows:

- To learn, research and develop innovative vehicle technologies for eco-friendly and green transportation applicable to next generation vehicle, railways, ships, aircrafts, etc.
- To learn, research and develop innovative transportation operation and management systems with IT-convergence.