

Course Introduction

■ Course Introduction

○ Master's course

● Characteristics of Master's Program in Information Management

- Optimization Process for Career Upgrade of Workers in IT Management Field
- A curriculum that reflects the educational needs of IT workers.
- Creating synergies between industry and academic through information sharing among students
- Overseas field study to experience advanced IT management

● KAIST Information Management Master's course

- 2-year part-time master's course specialized in IT management
- Semester: 4 semesters (2 year course)
- Class hours: Wednesday evening, Saturday all day (Fall semester starts)
- Awarded degree: MS in Information Management

● Graduation Requirements

	General Mandatory	Major Mandatory	Electives	Research	Graduation Credits
Thesis Master's Degree	3 credits, 1AU	15 credits	12 credits	9 credits	At least 3 credits
Subject Master's Degree	3 credits, 1AU	15 credits	18 credits	3 credits	At least 3 credits

● Global Program

[Visiting School]

- Stanford University (d.school)
- University of California, Irvine (The Paul Merage School of Business)

[Main Lecture Topics]

- Global Business
- Critical Thinking and Decision Making
- Strategic Storytelling
- Web and Mobile Analytics

[Visiting major global companies]

- Google
- Facebook
- SAP
- Oracle
- Yahoo