

Course Introduction

□ Graduate Program

□ Program name: KEPSI (KAIST Educational Program for the Semiconductor Industry) is an industry-university collaborative program established in the Department of Electrical Engineering. of KAIST from 1996.

□ Purpose: KEPSI is a special program to satisfy the demands of high-tech industries and to foster highly qualified engineers who will play a leading role in semiconductor industries in the 21st century.