

Green Business and Policy Program Overview

Green Business and Policy Program	Homepage: http://www.business.kaist.ac.kr/gsgg
	Office: +82)2-958-3407~8

■ Overview
Green Business and Policy Program (MS) nurtures world-class public and private sector experts to objectively analyze management and policy issues to cope with climate change and maintain sustainable growth, based on an integrated understanding of management, markets, policies, and technologies.

■ Academic and Research Activities

Integrated Curriculum: Green Business-Policy-Technology

- Learning international order and administrative system for climate change and sustainable growth.
- Overall understanding of the current status of green business and technology.
- Providing opportunities for further study through the area concentration in sustainable business, sustainable finance, and sustainable development policy.
- Performing active research projects on sustainable development policy, green finance, overseas development, and international negotiations.

Reinforcement of research competencies through projects

- An individual research project is required.
- Hold annual student research presentations and encourage research activities by awarding outstanding researchers.

Promote practical understanding of green business

- Conducts field trips to domestic and overseas green industries and research institutes.
- Hold green business seminars.
- Provide internship opportunities for students to gain experience in domestic and international organizations.