

Green MBA

Introduction

■ Introduction

The goal of Green MBA is to nurture green business specialists and entrepreneurs. It is a double majoring program with Techno-MBA and a student is required to take the minimum of 35 percent out of the total number of credits in green business. Moreover, a student is expected to carry out an individual green project by analyzing the status and cases of current green industry and apply in an actual management environment.