Undergraduate Minor Program

◼ Undergraduate Minor Program

CT minor curriculum is designed to provide education of technology for culture and technology for cultivating creativity to those who want to enter culture industry such as content production and planning. To this end, it is composed of the subjects to understand cultural contents and human being as a cultural consumer, to acquire basic knowledge of cultural contents technology, and to cultivate analysis ability of culture / social phenomenon.