

Major Course Requirements for Economics Minor Program
(For undergraduate students admitted in 2023 and after)

■ Credit Requirements for Graduation: a minimum of 18 credits

■ Minor: a minimum of 18 credits

○ Mandatory Major Courses: 6 credits

- BTM210 Microeconomics(3), BTM211 Macroeconomics(3)

○ Elective Major Courses: at least 12 credits

- MAS250 Probability and Statistics(3), MAS350 Elementary Probability Theory(3), MAS355 Mathematical Statistics(3), MAS371 Introduction to Financial Mathematics(3), MAS456 Statistical Methods with Computer(3), MAS471 Financial Mathematics and Stochastic Models(3), BTM301 Econometrics(3), BTM311 Intermediate Microeconomics(3), BTM312 Intermediate Macroeconomics(3), BTM402 International Economics(3), BTM408 Economics of Technology and Innovation(3), BTM413 Industrial Organization(3), BTM415 Game Theory(3), BTM417 Financial Economics(3), BTM418 Network Economics(3), BTM484 Special Topics in Economics(3)

※ Only one course from MAS250 Probability and Statistics(3), MAS350 Elementary Probability Theory(3), MAS355 Mathematical Statistics(3), MAS456 Statistical Methods with Computer(3) is counted toward the course requirements.

※ Major course credits cannot be double counted toward any other academic program.

□ Interim Measures

○ These requirements apply to the students admitted in the spring semester of 2023 or thereafter.

○ Students admitted in the fall semester of 2022 or before can choose to follow the completion requirements above.